

PS's Ponderings

25 Questions For Jesus

How many people believed in you because they watched how you died?
What did you do for those three days between your death and resurrection?
Which angel rolled the stone away?
What did you and Lazarus talk about after you raised him from the dead?
What was the reunion with the Father like?

What was it like seeing Peter leap out of the boat when he recognized you?
Did you wish that your mother was not present to witness your crucifixion?
Could you see the Angels who wanted to rush to your rescue?
What was it like seeing your earthly father Joseph again?
How hard was it to let your closest friends and family grieve for those three days?

Where was Thomas when you appeared among your disciples the first time?
Did you think of Judas on the cross?
Where did you get the fish that you cooked for breakfast for Peter?
Did you talk with Lucifer sometime during those three days?
If so, how did he react?

How hard was it to say goodbye before you ascended to Heaven?
Did you think of the future Great Banquet in Heaven during the Last Supper?
Who were the two people on the road to Emmaus?
Was the young man at the tomb in Mark 16, John, Mark, or an angel?
Why did you first appear to the women?

Which of the 500 who saw you after your resurrection was the most startled?
What was Heaven's reaction when you walked through its gates?
Did anyone else ever use Joseph of Arimathea's tomb?
Did the thief on the cross beside you greet you when you returned to Heaven?
How difficult is it to wait patiently for your second coming?